

STATE MINERS GET INCREASE

Grass Creek and Weber Coal Companies Raise Price of Coal 50 Cents Per Ton.

Coalville, Nov. 19.—The Grass Creek Coal company and the Weber Coal company have advanced the price of coal 50 cents per ton today. As a result of this, the price of coal at the mines is now 12 cents per ton. The mines are not likely to strike, because the miners are few and far between. The price of coal is expected to be higher in the future, because the mines are not likely to strike, because the miners are few and far between. THE CARELESS TRAVELER.

William Jones, a Hyde Park man, started the other evening for Cincinnati. After boarding the train he carefully tucked his ticket inside the band of his hat. A few minutes later, however, before the train was moving at the rate of twenty miles an hour, he carelessly put his head out of the window.

Time to Get Aboard.

"Porter, is my ticket good on this train?" "Yes, sah. Step right in, sah." "This is a fast train, ain't it?" "No, sah; it's a slow train, sah." "How fast does it run?" "Sometimes a mile a minute, sah." "You're kidding me, sah?" "No, sah; but it sometimes leaves de passengers. Better get aboard, sah."

Lack of Judgment.

"Was you really plannin' to run away with the hired girl?" asked the old farmer, disgustedly. "That's what I was thinkin' of doin'," admitted his son. "That's what I was thinkin' of doin'," admitted his son. "That's what I was thinkin' of doin'," admitted his son.

First of the Postoffice Cases Resulted in Acquittal.

MILLER AND JOHNS GO FREE

DEMONSTRATION MADE BY INDIANA FRIENDS.

Cincinnati, O., Nov. 20.—D. V. Miller of Terre Haute and Joseph M. Johns of Rockville, Ind., were tonight acquitted of the charge of conspiracy to extort a bribe from John J. Ryan, made by the postoffice department. The verdict of "not guilty" was received by the crowd with demonstrations that could not be suppressed by the court officers. As soon as court was adjourned, Judge Albert C. Thompson had retired, and the friends of the defendants made a demonstration in front of the court house.

The present trial began last Monday morning. The jury retired shortly before 3 o'clock this afternoon and rendered its verdict after deliberating six hours. It is understood that a majority was for acquittal from the start, and that it took some time to go over all the documents that had been submitted in evidence before a unanimous verdict was reached. It is generally understood that there was doubt as to Miller's connection with the transactions between Johns and Ryan. The government officials state that this case was not like any of the other postal cases that are pending, as this case simply dealt with the action of Miller when he was an assistant attorney general in the postoffice department.

An Answer So Deserved.

(Louisville Herald.)

A popular commercial traveler attended a large social gathering one evening, and after the supper was over he promiscuously mixed with the guests. A young lady, to whom he had just been introduced, in the course of the conversation the subject of business came up, and she said:

"By the way, Mr. Scott, may I ask what your occupation is?"

"Certainly," he answered, "I am a commercial traveler."

"How very interesting! Do you know, Mr. Scott, that in the part of the country where I reside commercial travelers are not received in good society?"

"Quite a flash in the pan, madam."

"They are not here, either, madam."

"Isn't it so?"

(Cincinnati Times-Star.)

And now the time of year.

When madly to the cedar chest

We rush to see

Reported by a devious hand

A pair of trousers or a vest

Or a winter hat

Still left in that

The money had not chewed up into

A little bunch

Of home-made lunch

Or open-mouthed for me and you!

Warm Enough For Him.

(San Francisco News Letter.)

"Why are you sad, my boy?" asked the kind old man.

"I was just wishin' it was skat'n' time," replied the young fellow.

"Why, I saw you in swimming a little while ago, and you seemed to be enjoying it."

"I know, but pop caught me at it, and I'd better now if I could sit on the ice awhile."
